Bakers Fight Law Increasing Weight of Loaves and Labeling.

(Special to The Evening World.)
HARTFORD, Conn., Dec. 2.—Preparations by the State bakers' association to file in the Superior Court a request for an injunction to restrain the State of Connecticut from enforcing the act, effective last July 1, as to the sale of bread prescribing weight and labeling, has brought the question of enforcement of the act to a head, and Attorney General Healy said to-day he would give an opinion to Superintendent Hurley of the State police next week as to whether the act ought to be enforced or not.

The bakers of the State had raised the serious objection of "public policy" against the act and filed a long brief through counsel with the Attorney General, setting forth their reasons why the law should not be enforced.

Colored Man and Woman Are Charged With a $17,000 New York Robbery.

(Special to The Evening World.)
HARTFORD, Conn., Dec. 2.—New York detectives were here to-day to take back to New York City Robert Leigh and Alice Brown, both colored, who have confessed to robbing the home of the Brown woman's mistress, Mrs. Mary Hoberg of Lexington Avenue, who came here Thursday night and identified $17,000 in jewels and furs stolen from her home Nov. 22 and recovered after clever work by Detective Sgt. Lawrence J. Lowe, who arrested the couple on description and later identified the jewels hidden under the roof of an Atlantic Street building and the furs buried in a pile of coal.

Fine Chance for General Practitioners in Medicine.

(Special to The Evening World.)
HARTFORD, Conn., Dec. 2.—Although the telephone, the automobile and an increasing network of good roads make it possible to summon a physician to any part of Connecticut upon short notice, it remains a fact that there are forty-six out of the 100 towns in this State where there are no registered physicians.

"Meteor in Daylight" Threw Off Sparks.

(Special to The Evening World.)
BALTIMORE, Conn., Dec. 2.—Something never before heard of, "a meteor in daylight," was seen here yesterday just before sunset. Off to the north a shooting star or meteor fell, being so near the earth here that sparks were seen thrown off it. More than a dozen people report the peculiar phenomena.

"BLOCK AND FALL" GOT HIM.

Farmer Who Drank Species of Jerry Hoach Is Dying.

CAPE MAY, Dec. 2.—It is reported that Nate Newman, a farmer who lives at Price's Beach and who drank the hooch known as "block and fall," of which it is said that after drinking the victim will walk a block and fall, is dying. Newman has a wife and a large family.

It is said Newman obtained the "block and fall" in the foreign quarter, where it is alleged the hooch can be bought in grocery stores and at fruit stands.

Citizens are indignant because the Women's Christian Temperance Union and reformers have appealed to Mayor Melvin and he said nothing could be done by him.
